My family and I send our deepest condolences to the family. We have very fond memories of Ms. Marva that go back for decades. We will cherish the times we shared with her and hold her memory close to our hearts. Our thoughts and prayers are with her daughter, Betty Jean, her grandchildren, and the extended family. May God give you strength to endure this time of sorrow and bring you to a place of perfect peace.

“ I met cousin Marva at Vidant Ronoke Chowan Hospital when I was scheduled for surgery. She was volunteering. It was good to see her since I hadn't seen her in years. She was very close to my late aunt Doris and grandma Margaret Holley. Prayers are with the entire family. Remember, earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.
