“ Marvin was the quiet shy one in the family. He was a wonderful carpenter. When I left and joined the Army he was still at home. He joined the Marines for a short period, he moved, the next time I saw him was at my dad's funeral that was the day he shocked the whole family when he sang a solo at my dad's funeral. The whole family and church was mesmerized, we didn't know he could hold a note. He rocked the church. He will be singing his songs in heaven. May he rest in peace. Karen, may you remember the good times that you all spent together. Love and peace be with you. Charles Aubrey Richmond.

“ This is the Marvin that want you to remember also. I will miss him ,he wasn't always physically with me but mentally he never left. When I caught up with him he was married to his wife and good care taker Karen Richmond. I remember while growing up I was going to the Dentist for a cavity and all Marvin could say to comfort me is, if you had hard teeth like mine you wouldn't have to go. I responded back, yeah but your hard teeth came with your hard head and we both began to laugh. 😊 I will miss you but will never forget you. I'm sad but glad you are in a better place. The Heavenly choir will have another one from my family. 🎤🎤🎹🎤 And now you 🎤.

“ I remember my Uncle Marvin at my Grandparents house in PG and me always being next to him.I will miss you dearly Uncle Marvin. And when Granddad passed away you came to California and sang the house down with I Won't Complain. I sang that song a lot in my old church. RIP and please let my mom and Sister know I love them and to watch over me and my kids. It's getting harder down here. 😊

“ I will always remember when you , me, and Curtis were cussing and our sister Kaye said she was going to tell Daddy when he got from work. The 3 of us went and put on 3 pairs of pants, because we knew Daddy didn't play when it came down to whoopings. When Daddy got home and Kaye told it we had to line up in the living room and he called us to the kitchen 1 by 1. When he got to you, he said "Hmmm seems like you gained a lil weight" and he began to light you up. Me and Curtis was in the living room cracking up, cause you made it seem like he was really "HURTIN" you. And last but not least, when Daddy passed you came home to California and sang " I WON'T COMPLAIN" nobody knew you could sing like that. You TORE UP THE CHURCH. I will miss you BROTHER. Love you Marvin, I knew who you were, but I don't remember much about you, maybe because you were 10 years older than me. May you Rest In Peace. Gone but not forgotten.

I remember the story about the whipping and adding on all the clothes. I remember sparing with Marvin in the back yard in San Jose on Skall Dr when I was 15 years old and attempting a jump spinning wheel kick and falling on my head. He laughed at me so hard then I showed him I could do it and he showed me a few other karate moves. I had spoke to him on the phone a while back and we both stated it would have been nice to see each other soon and that we still cared about once another and missed each other. I will see you Marvin when our Lord and Savior calls me home. I love and miss you always and may you rest in peace with our other family members who are there with you in heaven.
