“ On behalf of the 9 children (and their families) of the late Rev. James and Doris Dildy Baker, Aunt Elizabeth we will truly miss you and appreciate all that you and your family has done for us growing up. She was more than a mother to us; she was a “Phenomenal Woman”.
Philippians 4:11 - I have learned in whatever circumstances I am, to be content.

“ I remember Mrs. Dildy when I was younger from attending New Piney Grove with my family, as I got older she always called me little Shirley Mae. I remember playing in her yard when my grandmother would always visit her. She was such a sweet lady with a beautiful spirit, always had that beautiful smile. She is the last of the older ladies of New Piney Grove. Rest In Paradise, Mrs. Dildy. My condolences to the family. The Hathaway/Hall family give our condolences.. 🙏🙏
