“ Net,Barbie,Butch,Tim, My heartfelt sympathy to each of you and the grandchildren in the loss of your mother. There are so many wonderful memories, she n cousin Larry moved in on the day I was born 9/20/52,they became life time neighbors, friends and family.We could depend on cousin Mattie for a fresh hairdo, some good food,especially her fried cornbread cakes) lessons in life,a hiding place when the kids from other places came to GET, you, she always knew what to say.when the parents were working, She was that watchful eye. She will be missed.we all shall find comfort in our many memories. RIP cousin Mattie, your kids ensured you had all the comforts of home while you were here. You got to see the world. With a smile You're now smiling that smile from heaven above. Our neighborhood ANGEL.
with love
