“ Aunt Maudie,

It has only been 4 short days since GOD called you home. But it seems like an eternity.

You were a strong woman who devoutly believed in COD's WORD and lived your life by it. You were a giver of yourself and your resources. Always willing to share your opinion. Giving advice that was earnest, from the heart, and most importantly truthful.

After Grandma's passing you stepped up without hesitation and assumed the Family Matriarch role. Thanks for being the woman you did not have to be. Always steering us through whatever adversity that arose. Leading us with compassion, caring, and downright sincerity. As every ship at sea needs a captain, every plane in flight needs a pilot, and every train needs an engineer so does every growing and expanding Family needs someone at the helm to guide it. You were all those wrapped into a single wonderful person.

If we maintain our earthly identity in HEAVEN as ANGELS give Grandma and Granddaddy a big hug for me.. Let them know I miss them every day. Then say hello to other family members up there. Let them know we are on the way and we all will be together again one day.

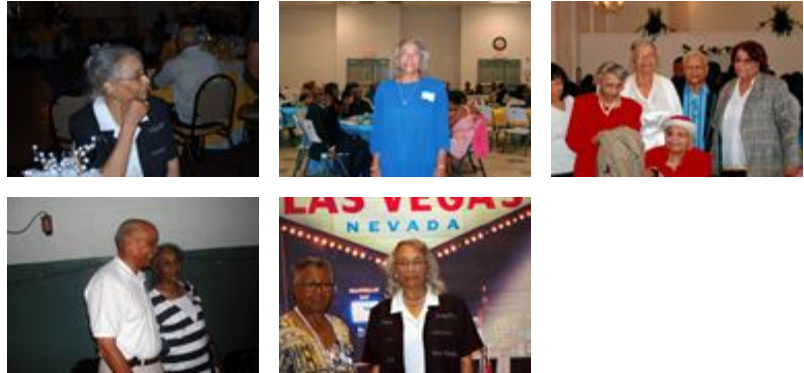

We will miss you a lot, but you will forever be with us in our heart. Rest in peace my dear Aunt. We love you.
