“ Ms. Askew:

Minnie has transitioned physically, but her spirit will forever be with you. There will always be moments/times that cause you to reflect back on something the two of you shared. Cherish and hold on to them because they will help your heart heal. Please know that you and your family are in my prayers.

“ Dear Professor Askew (Sharon):

I wanted to let you and your family know that your Halifax Community College Family shares in the loss of your beloved sister Mrs. Minnie R. Johnson. We know that this is a very trying time in your life and you will miss your sister. We also know that God is our real source of strength, inspiration, and hope during these sad times. I encourage you and your family to lean on him at this time.

I have not had the opportunity to talk with you directly but wanted you to know that our students, trustees, faculty, staff, administration, and the total HCC community is praying for you and your family. In the days to come, please do not hesitate to call if you should need to do so.

We care about you and look forward to your return to the campus community.

Sincerely,

*Dr, Ervin V. Griffin, Sr.
