“ Deepest sympathy to the Cross & Collins families in the loss of Ms. Omata. Also sympathy to her church families as her presence will be greatly missed at Stoney Branch as well as at Corinth Chapel U.C.C. Her daughter, Gayle, and I were very close friends as teenagers. Deepest condolences to Gayle's son Brian in the loss of his grandmother. May memories of Ms. Omata always bring comfort and strength to you and to future generations. She was one of a kind and impacted many. Both mother & daughter will never be forgotten. My prayers are with your family. Apostle Barbara Howell, Fire & Grace Ministries, Richmond, VA.

“ Our heartfelt sympathy and prayers are with the family. We will miss our friend, "Omato" who was a fine, stylish, well dressed, tenacious, talented, Christian woman. She made and gave us many unique household items and beautiful jewelry. We cherished worshipping together, eating her moist, delicious Blueberry muffins, exchanging birthday gifts, and having many wonderful conversations. May God strengthen, comfort, sustain and give her family and friends peace.
