“ Pat and I were best friends as young teenagers, and shared a lot of memorable occasions. Our mothers were best friends also , which is how we meet. As a teenager I moved from Elizabeth to Phila. Pa. , and lost track of my friend. I never stop searching for her. She was a kind sweet person, and like a sister to me. I saddens me to see that she is gone. I'll cherish the memories forever.

RIP

Pat and I partnered to train for roller skating dance and acrobatics under the tutelage /choreographer/coach Elray Brown at the Doolittle Branch School basement in the Iva B Wells Housing Projects located at 450 East 39th Street, Chicago, Illinois. During one practice session I dropped her when slipping on a freshly waxed very smooth concrete floor. The forehead skin separation left a permanent and long mark at the hairline. My sorrow has and will last forever. The memory somewhat softens because her dream of singing with Teddy survived untarnished.

Rest In Peace
