“ Thank you granddaddy for everything. I remember riding in your red Chevrolet as a child, happy as a well fed clam. I would chew Juicy Fruit gum with you, sucking out all the flavor before discarding it in the provided wrapper. I cherish my memories of you.

“ God promises a time when “he will actually swallow up death forever.” (Isaiah 25:8) To remove death, he must eliminate its root cause, which is sin. God will do this through Jesus Christ, who “takes away the sin of the world.”—John 1:29; 1 John 1:7. Once this is done God makes a promise to each of us in Revelation 21:3,4 where he states he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. What a wonderful God we serve. At that time I will be able to see and laugh with my Uncle Paul again.

Uncle Paul was such a gentle man. Slow to anger and full of wisdom. We all do well to take an example from his life and use in our own lives. I am going to miss my dear uncle and I want the rest of the family to know that together we can get through this and we need to remember we come from a great generation of love and family togetherness, that is what Uncle Paul and his generation stood for.

Until we meet again. I Love you Uncle Paul
