“ To The Family:

I am writing this letter to express my deepest condolence for you and your family during this time of loss. The loss of a loved one is a very emotional time for all involved. I wanted to pass on some encouraging Bible verses to comfort you during this most trying time in your life. These Bible verses have brought me comfort during my times of grief.

JOHN 5:28

New Living Translation (NLT)

28 Don't be so surprised! Indeed, the time is coming when all the dead in their graves will hear the voice of God's Son,

Job 14:14,15

New Living Translation (NLT)

14 Can the dead live again?

If so, this would give me hope through all my years of struggle, and I would eagerly await the release of death.

15 You would call and I would answer, and you would yearn for me, your handiwork.

Revelation 21:3-4

New Living Translation (NLT)

3 I heard a loud shout from the throne, saying, "Look, God's home is now among his people! He will live with them, and they will be his people. God himself will be with them.[a] 4 He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there will be no more death or sorrow or crying or pain. All these things are gone forever."##imported-begin##Joseph Cutchin##imported-end##

“ Although I never met Mr. Bond, I want to express my condolences to his family and friends. Death can be very emotionally difficult to endure. However, we can look forward to the near future when loved ones will be reunited here on earth. - John 5:28, 29; Ps. 37:29. In the meantime, please take comfort in knowing that God cares for you and he can heal your broken hearts. - 1 Pet. 5:7, Ps. 147:3.##imported-begin##W. Ashworth##imported-end##

“ Laura, children and family,

I am sorry to hear of Percy's passing. He was a joy to be around especially when he used to deliver letters to me because his brother was too shy (smile) and also when he would let him drive his red 1964 Ford automobile to visit me. My brother, Dr. Clarence Cross, Jr. said to please express to you his condolences and that he will be sending you some correspondence in the mail. Take care and May God Be With you and the family.
