“ There are certain people to cross our paths in this life that leave lasting impressions. Ronald was certainly one of those people. He was our mail carrier for many years. As a child my brothers and I would have lemonade stands in the front yard during the summer. Ronald always bought several cups of lemonade from us before he continued on his mail route. After he retired, I would occasionally see him in a store downtown. However, when the news of my father’s death came out, he was one of the first visitors at our home to come and pay his respects. My thoughts and prayers are with his entire family as you celebrate him being born into eternity, while grieving your loss of not having him here daily going forward. Please know that he was thought of and admired by so many. His friendship crossed barriers of race, age and gender. For me, his gentle kindness of a mailman who took time from his busy day to buy 10 cent cups of lemonade from little kids and make their day will be something I will carry with me forever. Until we meet again may you be in God’s loving presence now and always.

“ He was our mail carrier when I was a child, and loved by all who knew him. When I was in high school, and got mail with my middle name on it, he never called me by my first name again! Rest in peace, dear man! Love, "Ralene"
