“ Ron and I were introduced through his wife, my sister. There are so many great memories shared between our families. Ron was a smart guy and very orderly with business. He was a devoted Cowboys fan and worked hard all of his life. I smile as I remember how proud Ron was of his family, especially the children (his daughter, nieces and nephews). I respect the love his immediate family (mother, now deceased father, sister and brothers) have always had for each other and the love and warm consideration they continue to show to my sister and niece during this difficult time for all. The Futrell family will always be family and Ron will always be our brother.
