To my dear sisters and brother in Christ. Betty and will always treasure the fun things that you shared with me about your mom since me met in kindergarten. You guys had a beautiful mom in spirit, and the way she carried herself. Guys there will be restless nights and days that will never seem as though they will never end. The Lord went into His garden and pulled a rose from His garden and whispered softly in her ear and said to her Rosa it's time to come home, leave your siblings now and come and spend eternity with me. Your mom was a great trooper and a great missionary helper but now that her work is done she must leave you. When you think of her she is very near right there in your heart so guys touch your heart every time you get that feeling of loneliness because that's where she is at all times. Love you guys, loved your mom but God loved her best. Be Bless!!!

“ Grandma,

You were a good Christian woman that loved the Lord and your family in that order. I feel sad for my own selfish reasons because you were my last grandparent to pass away, so this chapter in my life has ended. But I also feel happy because you were tired and ready. I understand because you lived a long good life and outlived Granddaddy, all your brothers and sisters and most of your childhood friends. I will cherish all the memories of summer visits, holidays and most importantly the values you taught me. I will miss your laughter and you always telling it like it is (LOL)!

I will always remember you telling us not to say goodbye because it was so final. So Grandma, I won't say goodbye, I will see you later!

*Love you forever,
Telissia*

“ We share in with you at your hours of grief. We shall always remember her long, but effective hours of labor in the missionary field. This has not fallen on deaf years. May God bless each of you and remember that He has called her from labor to REWARD.
