“*When peace like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea-billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.*”

Rev. Urquhart (Keith), as I often called you. . . .it has been a long, long time since I've spoken with you; however, that is not my purpose to recollect the length of time we've been out of contact, but most importantly, I'm here to extend my sincere condolences to you and your children as you experience the absence of your beloved wife, Sherry.

Please let this condolence among the many others you will receive, be a source of comfort and strength.

Just to help you remember, you assisted the music ministry of Mount Olive Baptist Church, Lewiston with a recording when I served as Minister of Music many years ago.

Be encouraged as you look unto the hills from whence cometh your help.

Reverend Urquhart (Keith), I extend my heartfelt sympathy to you and your family in the passing of Sherry. The love of our Heavenly Father will surely comfort and strengthen you at this time. I'll never forget all that you did for me in assisting with the Cofield Summer Program and helping with Shaw University fundraising. May God bless you and forever keep you in His care.
