To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Shon we already miss hearing your laughter and you and Garcia play around fighting. You would come up to the partsroom saying I love you Kim and I would say I love you to Shon but whar have you done (LOL)? You would say I made a mistake would you put this part back in stock for me and I will try not to make another mistake with a big smile on your face. You wasn't a man that did alot of talking you would rather show people what you could do. I will never forget all the stock talks and ticks that we shared. Shon rest on until we meet again!

“ My dear baby brother, my heart breaks a little more each moment in time knowing that I will never see you in your earthly form again. This journey began 47 years ago of me knowing you as the one who first stole my heart. Words are not enough to express how proud I am of you, such a gentle soul, with your goofy grin, your shyness and your slowness to angry. I will forever hold you deep in my heart, your passing is so very hard for me, the grief has taken to me like a sword piercing my flesh and puncturing my heart so deeply I can barely breath at times. I pray often now throughout my days that your soul is in heaven with our dear mother , that you are reunited once again, I too hope to one day join you and our love ones that have gone before us. I love you more than this earthly body has the capicity to hold. Until we meet again. I will love you foever.
