“ I am sorry for your loss please accept my deepest sympathy. I hope you will find your strength and comfort in Jesus promises of the earthly resurrection(:Acts 24:15) and the renewed Paradise earth, where death will be no more and no family will have to mourn the death of a loved one.-Revelation 21:3,4; Luke 23:43. May GOD(Psalms 83:18) grant you peace and comfort now during this grievous time.-Matthew 5:4.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Although, I do not know your family personally, I would like to share some encouraging thoughts from the Bible. The Bible provides comfort during these difficult times. Revelation 21:3-4 states, And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away. Very soon now, we will never experience losing our loved ones in death and we will be able to see them again once they resurrected as per John 5:28-29. May these words give you a new hope.

“ I have so many wonderful memories with Stan Ja. She and I were college roommates at Norfolk State University and our sons were born the same year in 1990. My heart hurts for her children and Bon Ja. Praying for God to comfort you and give you peace as you endure this tremendous loss. Karen Downing “ You've touched our hearts in a big, loving way and we will always remember your beauty. When our grandson, Tucker, needed help, you opened your arms and your heart to our sweet baby boy and you gave him guidance and much patience. He loved you and we love you. I'm grateful to God for your presence here on earth and I will always hold you in my heart. Rest sweet lady and please watch over little Tucker as he grows. We can never have too many angels on our side.
