“ Hey Tiny..its been a month since I've heard your voice, saw your face, and it isn't any easier now than it was then. I love you so very much, and there isn't a day that passes that I'm not thinking of you. I look up in the sky sometimes to see if you've drawn me a pic..I've had a few dreams, bt nothing replaces the actual you. I love you bro..always have, always will..your baby sis Toi.

“ I am sorry to learn of your loss. I know that the loss of a loved one is very difficult. I wanted to share some some encouragement with you from the Bible. The faithful patriarch Job had hope in the resurrection of the dead (Job 14:14, 15). Even our Lord Jesus promised, he would perform the resurrection in the future (John 11:23-25). I hope that the promises from the Bible will bring you comfort.

“ I'm still looking for the redo button Tiny...!! A do over, anything that would make my brothers lungs expand again! I love you so much boy.. You took part of me with you when you left..If giving my life would return yours, even if only for a second..I would do it in the blink of an eye.. God.. Please accept my brother into your kingdom, and when he gets there tell him his little sister loves and misses him..

“ This saddens me to write on this wall about my brother "Tiny", He was so charismatic.. Could make the funniest jokes, he was such a joy to know. Me and my brothers are all close, and this really hurts.. The entire family is shocked and overcome with such emotion that I can't even begin to describe. My brother was talented on every way imaginable, smart, witty, loving.. I miss him already, to know that I will never get that call again to hear him say "hey sustah, wit cho big nose" ,crushes me to my core..never get to hear that laugh, see that smirk, get help with my electronics...I'm praying for my family, our homemade "Will Smith" is no more..and each tear I shed I know is shed in love.. Tiny..you are still my brother..and I will never refer to you in past tense, because you will forever be with me..you left an impression big bro..I'm proud to say I AM your sister!!

“ I never had the honor of meeting Terence in person. I help admin a sports page where he was very active, especially during the football. I just want to relay how deeply saddened we all are at the passing of Terence. He was knowledgeable about sports and it was always good to see him chime in about his "Panthers". We also knew he was very creative. I myself would like to express my most sincere condolences to his family and friends. Since I've heard the sad news his family and close ones have been in my prayers I know somehow the Lord will grant all of you the strength to cope with this loss. God Bless you Terence. God Bless you (his family and friends). Sincerely, Karl Watson
