“ I don't consider myself healed from losing you but I have accepted your absence. 6 Years later and I still have so many questions. I went through years of feeling guilty for speaking with you daily and not hearing the pain in your voice. I truly shut myself off from having emotions and authentic relationships with people because I always felt they would leave after losing you. Losing you took a toll on me because I felt we didn't get to do so many things we were planning to do. I know now, how hurt you were, how alone you felt, and how you felt know one wanted to understand your words. As your little sister i'll do my best to exude your energy and represent you how you should be represented. My heart will never let me forget you and the impact losing someone I so badly wanted to have around me has had. I love you very Much T, with my entire heart.

“ The Revell & Twine Family,

I sang with Terrance on the Praise Team and choir. He was really a jewel, he smiled all the time, we had a conversation one Sunday and that's when I realized he could talk LOL!!! I will miss him a great deal, but he is at peace and knowing that makes it easier when thinking of him.

May God bless you all!

“ Family: You all are in my prayers, I am so sorry, my heart has been deeply sadden by this lost. I sing in the mass choir at the Ab, I did not know Terrance personally but I loved his smile. As a mother of a sons I was so proud to see your son active in God's house, I am so proud of all the young men professing Jesus as their Lord and Savior, singing or playing instruments at the Lord's House, Terrance made my heart happy, encouraged me that God is still on the throne, that there are a lot of good young men living for the Lord. Always smiling. May God give you all peace during this difficult time, I'm going to miss him! We loved Terrance, we love you and again I will keep this family lifted up in prayer.

“ As you go through this time I ask the Lord to give each and everyone of you strength to keep moving forth. Terrance was like a son to me and everytime I think about him all I can think about is what he told me the last time I spoke to him " I LOVE YOU " and it bring tears to my eyes, but I know he is watching us and everything will be okay because he is with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Just believing in The Lord and everything will be okay###imported-begin##Quishandra Hill##imported-end##

“ Tarsha

I too am left speechless, and feel heaviness in my heart for you and your family. I can't say I can only imagine what you are feeling, because I can't. As a mother the very thought of losing a child brings tears to my eyes. Even now as I type this comment to you I am tearing up, my heart aches for the pain you are bearing that is so great I can't even imagine. I know words are of little comfort. Just know that you are in my heart and my prayers.###imported-begin##Tammy Eure Hendrix##imported-end##

“ Tarsha

I really can't find the words to express to you the sadness and disbelief I feel for you and your family. I will say I am happy that Terrence, Tiara and Ebony were able to establish a relationship amongst each other for I know Tiara truly and really loved him for she expressed that many times to me. I pray you and your family stay strong after this lost.

*Many Prayers,
