I have very fond memories of Thelma. When our families lived in Bluefoot Thelma would baby sit my sister Rita and me. I believe I was about four or five years old. Later our families moved to Cofield. I remember her being friends with Mamie Sue Harrell. Whenever we saw each other she had that big smile and kind words to say. She would ask about my family. While living in Windsor she would still come to worship at Philippi. I was so happy to see her. I will never forget her.
