“Boochie was a distant cousin of mine who drove a log skidder for my cousin Penn Gatling. When I say drove I should use the words he rode that catapillar for my cousin. He was a man that excelled in his craft. I had a summer job working for my cousin and EVERY TIME Boochie would come out the woods I would drop what I was doing just to see him operate that CAT. Most of the time the front tires would be no where near the ground. He was twisting that Cat like he was riding the horse. When he brought those logs on deck the boys would yell “RAISE HELL OOOCH” and he did just that. I liked Boochie for a lot of reasons. Once, when he was living on Sugar Run and my daughter along with her friend would visit a young man their, Boochie told her if Kevin wasn’t your Daddy, then you might not be allowed to come here. I appreciated him saying that about me. My eyes are welling right now all the way in Florida. You Rest In Peace Boochie. You Rest In Peace!!!!🥹🥹
