“ Although it's been 2 yrs. It's not a day that goes by that I don't think of u. Sis I miss u so much. Jeremiah is getting so big and it's not a day that goes by that he doesn't talk to his princess him and ma. Which u already know cause I know u watching over us. I would do anything to hear your voice hear, your laugh. Our baby girl is doing good she have a lot of rough days thinking about u and our baby boy Te it's really been kinda rough on him since u left he kinda stay to himself alot. I'll do anything to take their pain away.. well my cupcake I love and miss u sooo much sometimes the pain becomes unbearable but God always seems to comfort me.. Kiss grandma Virginia for me. “ I loved being her doctor all these years - she always brought her amazing energy and spirit and gave it to everyone else, even in the cancer hospital. She was so proud of Jeremiah and sent pictures of him as recently as March 22. My heartfelt condolences and best wishes to all of Tiffanie's family and friends. Lisa Carey

“ I met Tiffanie the night Jeremiah was born. I was his nurse in the NICU. We stayed in contact over the years & when my mom was diagnosed with cancer, Tiffanie reached out to my mom & shared encouraging words to provide hope & support. Tiffanie was an amazing daughter, sister, mother, and friend. I am blessed the Lord brought her into my life.

To the family, you are in my prayers in the upcoming days, weeks, months, and years ahead.

Tiffany was a wonderful student and human being! Tiffany was in my eighth grade class at C.G.White Middle School, and I am honored to have had the opportunity to teach and interact with Tiffany! My condolences go out to her entire family. My only brother, Sandy Sessoms, passed away on April 13, 2019, from cancer, so I truly have some idea of what you are going through!
