“ I’m in Arkansas but still kept up with my friend. I messaged her but she reassured me she was better. I loved her like a sister. We lived together a couple of times. Shared many happy times. When u were with her she made u happy. My heart is broken cos my husband and I just found out today. Heaven will never be the same. Her love was a true love if you were her friend. She definitely made my life better k owing her. Love u Tiwanda and prayers for her family

Tiwanda was one of my favorite students, when she attended C.G. White Middle School, during the early 1990's. I was her eighth grade Reading/English teacher, and I thoroughly enjoyed having her in my class. Tiwanda was intelligent, hardworking, and respectful. After years, of not seeing her, around this area, I walked into the Speedway, where she just happened to be working, one day, and was thrilled to see and talk with her. We were genuinely happy, to see one another. I am really going to miss seeing and talking with her, whenever I stopped by Speedway, which was, at least, twice a month, just to talk with her. If I saw her car, on the store's premises, then I knew, that she was working, that day. Her family has my deepest condolences! God has truly called home, a lovely human being. Rest, my dear! Your work, here, is complete!❤️

“ Tiwanda was always a caring, nice and beautiful spirited person in school. The poem she wrote for our graduating class shows the type of heart and spirit she had early on. Even as we got older and I was working for Pepsi, I would see her in the grocery store when she managed there and her demeanor and spirit never changed over the years. Earth surely loss a great one but heaven also gained a great one. God bless her soul and I pray the family can find some comfort from these words plus the courage and strength from God to continue. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this unfortunate and difficult time.

“ I've known you since elementary school and you have been the same person from day one. We have been friends since kindergarten and I've never met a person as genuine as you. You were an earthly angel and you touched so many lives. I never ever saw you sad or down. You always had that beautiful, contagious smile on your face. You had wisdom beyond your years. Our birthdays are 7 days apart. When I heard you passed, I loss a piece of my heart. I love you my sweet friend and I'm going to miss you. Thank you for showing me the righteous way. Until we meet again...Sleep in peace beautiful ☐ 🙏. ~C/O 1998

TiWanda, words alone can't express the grief, sadness and disbelief I felt when I heard about your demise. You were an original 'TIWANDA' and I will always be so grateful to have had the opportunity to call you 'MY FRIEND'. I will miss you forever and a day. I know God make no mistakes and I don't wish you back on earth to endure pain over & over again... but I do wish that you hadn't left us so soon. Even death can't separate the love that I have for you....REST EASY MY FRIEND, REST EASY....
