“ Jessica Freeman and family,
I am just hearing of this now. I cannot tell you how much my heart hurts for you. We have talked about our boys and how so very special they really are. You will be in my thoughts and prayers. Words are just not enough. Love you, Amy Vick-Long “ Tyriq was so gifted, smart and focused-forward. I had the pleasure of training him and serving as his Success Coach while he was in the NC DOT Down East Highway Construction Trade Academy at Roanoke Chowan Community College. On the first day I served as his trainer, I asked him about his name because I'm related to the Windsor Swain's on my mother's side. When he told me his dad's name, I embraced him as my close cousin. We kept in touch. In his last message, he said, "I'm going to make you proud." RIP Tyriq. My heart is still confused and aching, but I'm comforted by Revelation 14:13 NIV which says "Then I heard a voice from heaven say, 'Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.'

'Yes,' says the Spirit, 'they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them.' “ ❤️🙏🕊️

“ You were always the life of a gathering. Your laugh, your smile, your silly dancing, but most of all the love and affection you showed to all that you came in contact with. We supposed to be going to see who gonna catch the biggest fish (since you a pro...lol)... You will be missed. We love you Ty.
