“ My beloved friend and sister will truly be missed. Valarie was a loving, kind, compassionate and humble women. She believed in standing for what was right while still showing love and compassion. No one will ever be able to fill the place I have in my heart for Val. She was in every way a sister to me. She loved her husband and son so very much. Little Mack your mom was so proud of the man you are becoming. Big Mack some of our last conversation were about how much she loved you. Val loved her family and was always concerned for their well being. Patrice and Ms. Elnora you both were her heart. She loved you all so. I guess that's the word that sums Val up, love. I believe with all my heart Valarie is with the Lord encouraging us to run our race as she did, 2 Timothy 4:7-8 with faith and loving God and people. As she always did. I am blessed to have had a friend and sister like Val.

“ *Children and Mothers never truly part, Bound in the beating of each other's heart. The goodness of my daughter endures will continue in life. My heart will continue to be broken because Valerie sacrifice so many things in life. Valerie always put others before herself. Even though she was sick Valerie continue smiling and laughing. Our love continue to growing. Even though we disagree on something we never stop loving one another as a family. My daughter brought goodness out of people.
