“ Very sorry to hear of Virginia's passing. My condolences to all her family. I am her niece, by marriage. My mother, Iva Lee, was Henry's older sister. As a young teen, I visited my grandparents, who lived across the road from Henry, Virginia, and family. (At the time there was Betty Rae, Michelle, and I think Cindy.) The loss of Michelle was awful. I mentioned Virginia in several of my diary entries. Later there was a wonderful family reunion, hosted by Henry and Virginia at their home in Millinen. I visited many times when Mae and Marie had their trailers there. As the family members passed on, sadly, I visited NC less and less. I know she loved her family.
