“ To Mrs. Simmons, Gloria and Family,
I was so sorry to hear about your loss. I will always cherish the many fond memories of your family when Gloria and I were at ECSU. How Mr. Simmons treated me just like one of his own when I came home with Gloria for the weekends. BBQ's, home cooked meals and great fatherly advise. Although I didn't see you often, I thought and asked about the family. I know that this is a difficult time and I will continue to pray your strength in the Lord. May God continue to bless you.
Love always,

“ To Marlene and Family:

May you sense the Lord's loving presence today and the coming days. May he keep you close to his heart assuring you of his tender loving care and covering you with his grace.

William's absence from here is his presence with the Lord.

Much Love,
